BALLET DRESS REQUIREMENTS

Ballet Attire- Where to Purchase

We partner with Ballera Dance store in Brookfield to provide a local retailer for ALL your dance needs!

We choose high quality brands that will wear well for you, to be tried on and purchased at Ballera or ordered from their online store in advance.

- Leotard colors are assigned for each class, as listed in the chart below. We use matching leotards as a base for costumes later in the year.
- Tights (Bloch tights in “pink,” or Capezio tights in “light pink”) either full footed or convertible.
- Shoes: Pink ballet shoes should be fitted and without “room to grow”, purchased locally at Ballera, in the style according to the chart below. (Shoes from Target, Walmart, Amazon, or cotton shoes that mimic dance slippers are not acceptable.)

Tiny Tots through Ballet 6A should wear their class leotard for every class.

Ballet 6B through Conservatory levels must have the tank style class leotard purchased for performance, and may wear other styles for class, as below.

BOYS: Boys must wear plain white T-shirt, black shorts, white socks, and black ballet shoes for ballet class.

Ballet Guidelines:

- Hair must be worn in a neat bun for all ballet classes.
- Underwear is NOT to be worn under leotards. Leotards and tights have a cotton panel, similar to a swimsuit.
- Appropriate dance undergarments may be purchased from Ballera. No visible bra straps please.
- Only small earrings are allowed in class. All other jewelry needs to be removed prior to class.
- No leg warmers, socks, or pants. No Hoods or bulky sweaters in class.
- Optional Approved Warm-ups will be removed at any time upon teacher request; it is standard that dancers remove their warm-ups after barre without being asked.
